Article 2

Nonprofit Purposes

Section 1. Specific Objectives and Purposes

The specific objectives and purposes of this corporation shall be:

- a. to educate the public concerning the nature of open source and SF (speculative fiction) thought, development, and issues using a variety of forums, both online and face-to-face;
- b. to sponsor and run one or more annual conventions with guests of interest to the open SF and open source communities where community members and guests can gather to network and exchange ideas;
- c. to sponsor special events open to the general public where ideas, opinions, and writings relating to open source and SF related issues may be expressed and shared with others;
- d. to redefine our education program from time to time to meet the changing needs of the SF and open source communities;
- e. be guided in principle by the motto "to do cool stuff".

Article 3

Directors

Section 1. Number

The corporation shall have seven directors and collectively they shall be known as the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Qualifications

Directors shall be of the age of majority in this state, and shall not have been convicted of any financially-related felony.

Section 3. Powers

Subject to the provisions of the laws of this state and any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation and these Bylaws relating to action required or permitted, the activities and affairs of this corporation shall be conducted and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Directors.

Section 4. Duties

It shall be the duty of the directors to:

- a. Perform any and all duties imposed on them collectively or individually by law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws;
- b. Appoint and remove, employ and discharge, and, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, prescribe the duties and fix the compensation, if any, of all officers, agents and employees of the corporation;
- c. Supervise all officers, agents and employees of the corporation to assure that their duties are performed properly;
- d. Meet at such times and places as required by these Bylaws;
- e. Register their addresses with the Secretary of the corporation, and notices of meetings mailed to them at such addresses shall be valid notices thereof.

Section 5. Term of Office

Each director shall hold office until resignation or removal from their office.

Section 6. Place Of Meetings

Meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or at a location chosen through a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of Directors shall be held on the second Saturday in January, March, June and September at 12:00 P.M., unless such day falls on a legal holiday, in which event the regular meeting shall be held at the same hour and place on the next Saturday. A different date may be selected by the President provided that all directors are notified at least 45 days in advance in the manner used for Special Meetings.

Section 8. [REMOVED]

Section 9. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President, the Vice President, the Secretary, by any two directors, or, if different, by the persons specifically authorized under the laws of this state to call special meetings of the board. Such meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation or, if different, at the place designated by the person or persons calling the special meeting.

Section 10. Notice of Meetings

Unless otherwise provided by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or provisions of law, the following provisions shall govern the giving of notice for meetings of the Board of Directors:

- a. Regular Meetings. No notice need be given of any regular meeting of the board of directors.
- b. Special Meetings. At least one week prior notice shall be given by the Secretary of the corporation to each director of each special meeting of the board. Such notice may be oral or written, may be given personally or impersonally. In the case of impersonal notification where the Secretary shall not be able to verify receipt, the director to be contacted shall acknowledge personal receipt of notice by a return message or telephone call within twenty-four hours of reception.
- c. Waiver of Notice. Whenever any notice of a meeting is required to be given to any director of this corporation under provisions of the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or the law of this state, a waiver of notice in writing signed by the director, whether before or after the time of the meeting, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice.
- d. Emergency Meetings. A meeting of the board of directors may be called without any advanced notice. An emergency meeting will require an affirmative vote by a majority of the current serving board of directors to pass any motion. A record of the minutes of the meeting must be made public within 72 hours of the meeting. All motions approved by an emergency meeting shall expire at the end of the next Regular or Special meeting unless approved at such meeting. Emergency Meetings can be called under the same guidelines as apply to Special Meetings. If the meeting is conducted by asynchronous communication, the director calling for a vote must establish a time limit for the vote.

Section 11. Quorum for Meetings

A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise provided under the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or provisions of law, no business shall be considered by the board at any meeting at which the required quorum is not present, and the only motion which the Chair shall entertain at such meeting is a motion to adjourn.

Section 12. Majority Action As Board Action

Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors, unless the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or provisions of law require a greater percentage or different voting rules for approval of a matter by the board.

Section 13. Conduct of Meetings

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the President of the Board, or in the absence of the President of the board, by the Vice President of the Board. In the absence of both the President and the Vice president, the meeting shall be presided over by a director chosen by a majority of the directors present at the meeting. The Secretary of the corporation shall act as secretary of all meetings of the board, provided that, in his or her absence, the presiding officer shall appoint another person to act as Secretary of the Meeting. Meetings shall be governed by such procedures as may be approved from time to time by the board of directors, insofar as such rules are not inconsistent with or in conflict with the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or with provisions of law.

Section 14. Vacancies

Vacancies on the Board of Directors shall exist (1) on the death, resignation or removal of any director, and (2) whenever the number of authorized directors is increased. Any director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the President, the Secretary or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. No director may resign if the corporation would then be left without a duly elected director or directors in charge of its affairs, except upon notice to the Office of the Attorney General or other appropriate agency of this state. Directors may be removed from office, with or without cause, as permitted by and in accordance with the laws of this state.

Unless otherwise prohibited by the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or provisions of law, vacancies on the board may be filled by approval of the Board of Directors. If the number of directors then in office is less than a quorum, a vacancy on the board may be filled by approval of a majority of the directors then in office or by a sole remaining director. A person elected to fill a vacancy on the board shall hold office until the next election of the Board of Directors or until his or her death, resignation or removal from office.

Section 15. Nonliability of Directors

The directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities or other obligations of the corporation.

Section 16. Indemnification by Corporation of Directors and Officers

The directors and officers of the corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation to the fullest extent permissible under the laws of this state.

Section 17. Insurance For Corporate Agents

Except as may be otherwise provided under provisions of law, the Board of Directors may adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any agent of the corporation (including a director, officer, employee or other agent of the corporation) against liabilities asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or provisions of law.

Section 18. Mandatory Participation

A Director shall be considered to have resigned from office if they do any of the following:

If a Director fails to attend 3 consecutive regularly scheduled board meetings.

If a Director does not participate in Penguicon activities for a period of 6 or more months.

For the purposes of this section, Penguicon activities shall include events organized and managed by either the Penguicon Board or Penguicon Convention Committee, with the primary purpose of serving the existing Penguicon community.

Article 4

Permanent Officers

Section 1. Designation Of Officers

The permanent officers of the corporation shall consist of be a President, a Vice President, a Secretary and a Treasurer. The corporation may also have other titled officers as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Qualifications

Any person may serve as officer of this corporation provided they have the qualifications for director as listed in Article 3 Section 2. Officers may be, but are not required to be members of Board of Directors.

Section 3. Election and Term of Office

Officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors, at any time, and each officer shall hold office until he or she resigns or is removed or is otherwise disqualified to serve, or until his or her successor shall be elected and qualified, whichever occurs first.

Section 4. Removal and Resignation

Any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by a majority vote of the full Board of Directors, at any time. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the President or Secretary of the corporation. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at any later date specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective. The above provisions of this Section shall be superseded by any conflicting terms of a contract which has been approved or ratified by the Board of Directors relating to the employment of any officer of the corporation. The removal of a Director from their position as a Permanent Officer does not affect their position as a Director.

Section 5. [REMOVED]

Section 6. Duties of President

The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation and shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, supervise and control the affairs of the corporation and the activities of the officers. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors. Except as otherwise expressly provided by law, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws, he or she shall, in the name of the corporation, execute such deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, checks or other instruments which may from time to time be authorized by the Board of Directors.

Section 7. Duties of Vice President

In the absence of the President, or in the event of his or her inability or refusal to act, the Vice President shall perform all the duties of the President, and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions on, the President. The Vice President shall have other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law, by the Articles of Incorporation or by these Bylaws or as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

Section 8. Duties of Secretary

The Secretary shall:

Certify and keep at the principal office of the corporation the original, or a copy, of these Bylaws as amended or otherwise altered to date.
